The Adventure Of Henry Summers

"Hurry up Henry!" called Anne, the big sister of Henry. Mum, Dad, Anne and Henry were going for a walk in the countryside. Henry waddled along the path until his hat was blown off by the autumn wind. He walked back to get it but when he bent down a bright light caught his attention. There was a voice whispering, "Follow the light and you will see something spectacular." Henry did as he was asked and he pushed the trees out of the way. "Join us Henry," a mushroom asked. Anne, Mum and Dad entered. "Oh Henry!" said Mum lovingly.
